

STATEMENT ATTRIBUTABLE TO THE SPOKESPERSON FOR THE SECRETARY-GENERAL
On Lebanese Parliamentary Elections

New York, 8 June 2009

The Secretary-General congratulates the people of Lebanon and all Lebanese parties and institutions concerned on the peaceful conduct of the parliamentary elections. He calls on all Lebanese to respect the results and urges them to work together in the spirit of coexistence and democracy. The Secretary-General hopes that the process of government formation will commence expeditiously and that it will take place in a calm and secure environment.

Yesterday's elections and the formation of a new government in the coming period represent further important steps along the path of the revitalization of the State's political institutions. The Secretary-General looks forward to the full consolidation of Lebanon's sovereignty, stability, unity and political independence in accordance with the Taif Accord and relevant Security Council resolutions.
